HOME DESCRIPTION

Space and flexibility come together seamlessly in the McDowell.

Designed for how people actually live today, the McDowell offers four bedrooms, two-and-a-half baths, and multiple flex spaces that provide versatility without sacrificing flow. The main level features a bright, open-concept layout where the kitchen, dining, and living areas connect naturally around a large center island--perfect for everyday living and entertaining. A main-level flex room adds even more options for a home office, playroom, or additional living space.

Upstairs continues to impress with a spacious loft and an additional flex area ideal for a media room, workspace, or second living area. All four bedrooms are located on the upper level, creating a thoughtful separation between living and private spaces.

Set on a flat, wooded homesite just over half an acre, this property offers privacy and outdoor space that's both usable and inviting--a combination that's increasingly hard to find. With its generous layout and flexible design, this is a home you truly need to see in person to appreciate.
